

Colonel Terry R. Ferrell
Commander, Second Brigade Combat Team, Third Infantry Division
Multi-National Division-Center

Colonel Terry R. Ferrell was commissioned an Armor Officer in 1984 through the Reserve Officer Training Corps program at Marshall University. His military schooling includes the Armor Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, Combined Services Staff School, Command and General Staff College, and the United States Army War College. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Counseling and Rehabilitation from Marshall University a Masters of Business Administration from Central Michigan University, and a Masters of Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College.

Colonel Ferrell's assignments include Tank Platoon Leader and Company Executive Officer at Camp Casey, Korea; Company Executive Officer and Battalion S4 at Fort Hood, Texas; Tank Company Commander and the Headquarters and Headquarters Company Commander in Baumholder, Germany; Observer-Controller on the Scorpion (Mechanized Infantry) team at the National Training Center, Fort Irwin, California; Officer Advanced Course small group instructor in the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia; Squadron S3, Regimental S3, and Regimental Executive Officer of the 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment at Fort Carson, Colorado; and Commander of 3d Squadron, 7th Cavalry Regiment, in the 3d Infantry Division at Fort Stewart, Georgia. Colonel Ferrell's peacekeeping experience includes two rotations to Bosnia and his combat experience was as Commander of 3d Squadron, 7th Cavalry Regiment during Operation Iraqi Freedom. His most recent assignment was with United States Northern Command in Colorado Springs, Colorado.